

The Dorsey & Whitney Diversity Fellowship

Dorsey & Whitney LLP is highly committed to diversity. We understand the value of a diverse work environment and believe that this environment adds to the success of our attorneys and staff. Dorsey is committed to recruiting, retaining and promoting attorneys from diverse backgrounds.

Award

We are pleased to announce the 2016 Dorsey & Whitney Diversity Fellowship program. This is the eleventh year that Dorsey has offered the Diversity Fellowship.

Dorsey's Minneapolis and Seattle offices will each select a first-year law student to receive the Dorsey Diversity Fellowship and work as a 2016 summer associate. Recipients will receive $7,500 toward law school tuition and expenses for the 2016-2017 school year. Recipients who return to Dorsey for the summer following their second year of law school will receive an additional $7,500 for the 2017-2018 school year, and an additional $5,000 if they join the firm as an associate.

First-year law students may apply to the Minneapolis and Seattle offices on or shortly after December 1, 2015 and no later than 11:59 p.m. (CT) on January 18, 2016.

Eligibility

All law students of diverse backgrounds who attend an ABA-accredited school are eligible to apply, subject to the class year requirement as noted above. Successful applicants will have a demonstrated record of academic achievement and a commitment to promoting diversity in the legal community.

Application

To apply, please submit the following materials to the offices for which you wish to be considered:

- The Dorsey & Whitney Diversity Fellowship application
- A personal statement addressing the ways in which you have promoted and will continue to promote diversity in the legal community, what diversity means to you and why you are interested in Dorsey
- Your resume (including cumulative undergraduate GPA)
- An unofficial law school transcript*

Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis and accepted from December 1, 2015 until January 18, 2016. Applications must be submitted by 11:59 p.m. (CT) on January 18, 2016.

* If your fall transcript is not available until after January 18, 2016, please submit all other application materials before that date and indicate in your cover letter when we can expect to receive your transcript.
